

Endless Mountains Trail

With thirteen wineries and more on the way, the Endless Mountains Trail offers a taste of local handcrafted wines, many unique to the region.

Endless Mountains Trail

Antler Ridge Winery, Rome
antlerridgewinery.com
570-247-7222

Pickering Winery, Wysox
pickeringwinery.com 570-247-7269

Grovedale Winery, Wyalusing
grovedalewinery.com 570-746-1400

Hidden Creek Vineyard and Winery, Laceyville
hiddencreekwines.com
570-869-WINE

Maiolatesi Wine Cellars, Scott Township
maiolatesiwines.com
570-254-9977

Nimble Hill Vineyard and Winery, East Tunkhannock
nimblehill.com
570-836-WINE

Bartolai Winery, Harding
bartolaiwinery.com
570-388-VINO

Pavlick Hill Vineyard, Dallas
pavlickhill.com
570-675-0608

Lopez Winery, Lopez
lopezwinery.com
570-928-7897

Winterland Winery, Lopez, (opening Fall 2009)
winterlandwinery.com 570-928-7771

Bird Song Winery, Dushore
birdsongwinery.com
570-928-7170

Ladensburg Mountain Winery, New Albany
ladensburgwine.com 570-363-2476

Eagle Rock Winery, Laporte
eaglerockwinery.com 570-946-7767

At the Steamtown National History Site, you can ride the rails and see what it's like on an old-fashioned steam locomotive.

Along the banks of the Susquehanna visit the French Azilum, where French loyalists fleeing the revolution found a short-lived asylum in the 1790s.

The Marie Antoinette Lookout offers a bird's-eye view of the site where French refugees built a colony in the late 1700s. It also offers a scenic view of the Endless Mountains and the Susquehanna River.

