

Groundhog Trail

The Groundhog Trail stretches across the counties surrounding Pennsylvania's most famous marmot, Punxsutawney Phil. It's also home to the Groundhog Wine Trail Festival, the largest indoor wine festival in Central PA.

Groundhog Trail

Flickerwood Wine Cellars, Kane
 flickerwood.com
 814-837-7566

Allegheny Cellars Winery, Sheffield
 alleghenycellars.com
 814-968-5812

Winery at Wilcox, Wilcox
 wineryatwilcox.net
 814-929-5598

Laurel Mountain Vineyard, Falls Creek
 laurelwines.com
 814-371-7022

Foxburg Wine Cellars, Foxburg
 foxburgwine.com
 724-659-0021

Evergreen Valley Vineyards, Luthersburg
 ewinery.com
 814-583-7575

Windgate Vineyards, Smicksburg
 windgatevineyards.com
 814-257-8797

Starr Hill Vineyard Winery, Curwensville
 starrhillwinery.com
 814-236-0910

Oak Spring Winery, Altoona
 oakspringwinery.com
 814-946-3799

 The Appalachia Art Studio in Ridgway offers hands-on workshops in everything from chainsaw carving to painting and printmaking. After all, everyone knows art and wine go together.

 Located in downtown Altoona, the Railroaders Memorial Museum pays tribute to one of Pennsylvania's most important rail-regions.

 When you are ready for a picnic or a park stop, visit Bilger's Rocks. Hidden in the mountains of Central Pennsylvania, these sandstone formations spread through 20 well-preserved acres.